Conditions of booking

- A booking is only secured when a deposit and booking form are received and acknowledged by us.
- If you cancel your booking, for what ever reason, the deposit is forfeited.
- The balance of fees must be paid four weeks before the start of a course.
- If you cancel your booking, for whatever reason, less than 12 weeks before the start of a course 60% of the full fees are due; if less than four weeks the full fees are due.
- If a booking has to be cancelled by the centre, and no acceptable alternative dates are available, all fees paid to the centre will be refunded.
- Should you have a change in circumstances, do contact the FACT office immediately; we will do all we can to accommodate your needs.

Holiday insurance

- Fellowship Afloat is covered by public liability insurance which indemnifies the Trust in the event of an accident or loss resulting from negligence on its part. Cancellation costs, personal accidents and property loss for visitors are not covered, so we advise you to make your own arrangements if insurance is required.

Photographs

- Visitors are advised that they are not permitted to publish or make available to the public, images in any format, whether static or moving of the staff or volunteers of the Trust; or any organised activities, unless express permission has been granted in writing. Permission can be obtained by emailing info@fact.org.uk.
- If you later withdraw consent for publicity material, it will not be possible to remove your image from any material in circulation. By agreeing to your images being used, you agree to assign any copyright or any other right or ownership of these images to FACT.
- FACT has a Data Privacy Policy which can be found at www.fact.org.uk/data-privacy-policy or upon written request. Your data will be used and stored in accordance with this policy.
- For RYA courses, we may be required to share some of your details with the RYA, for the purpose of issuing and registering certificates.
